and 41 were, as desired by [illegible], registered in the name of the temple deity on full assessment and the remaining Survey number 2 was entered as Government waste land.

4. In the year 1930, the proprietors of the pujaries prayed for the restoration of the inam lands stating that they would pay the amount of Rs.40-6-0 granted by Government in 1921-22, and subsequently they paid the amount.

5. The Deputy Commissioner strongly recommends the restoration of the said inam lands on the ground that the pujaries are not allowed any cash grant.

6. The Inamai Secretary is also of the same opinion.

7. In these circumstances, Government are pleased to direct that all the four Survey numbers in question be restored to the temple as inam subject to the payment of the combined Jodi and quit-rent amounting to Rs.11/- as before.
